

Letter of Invitation for the 2022 ACCESS Summer School in Benin Republic, from the 28th March to 1st April 2022

Dear Sir/Madam,

We are pleased to officially invite you to the 2022 ACCESS Summer School with the theme: "Improving Graduate Employability Through Service-Learning Implementation In Benin HEIs: Academic and Business Collaboration", which will be taking place at the IRGIB-Africa University campus in Cotonou, Benin, from 28th March to 1st April 2022.

The Summer School is supported by the "German Academic Exchange Service" (DAAD) through the "University Excellence in Development Cooperation (exceed)" program with funds from the "Federal Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development", and jointly hosted by the University of Leipzig, Germany, and IRGIB-Africa University, Benin.

The primary purpose of this year's Summer School is to provide theoretical and practical input on How to Integrate Service-Learning Programs into lectures. It will also offer methods and tools for the implementation of Service-Learning approaches in HEIs.

Program Overview

For this first edition, we will be welcoming 35 participants composed of lecturers and Ph.D. students from the ACCESS partner universities in Leipzig, Benin, Nigeria, Ghana, Rwanda, Tunisia, and Kenya.

This Summer School is an opportunity for lecturers and Ph.D. students who intend to become lecturers to gain hands-on skills on the topic of Service-Learning. The summer school will cover three main sessions;

1. Status quo of Service-Learning in Benin and ACCESS Partners Universities,
2. Designing a Service-Learning course,
3. Practical cases on the application of Service-Learning.
